

Autism Connects

Are You Connected?

You are invited to become a member of AutismConnects: www.AutismConnects.com

Join our Virtual Community!

AutismConnects is becoming a central hub for a world of people connected by a common interest in Autism Spectrum Disorders. We invite people with ASDs, their families and friends, educators, therapists, service providers, organizations, researchers, legislators and volunteers – anyone with an interest in Life on the Spectrum and a desire to improve the health and quality of life of people with ASDs – to become a member.

Celebrate the Spectrum by sharing your photos, artwork, stories and videos.

Add your favourite resources to a growing searchable list of Online Resources to share with others. You can also rate the quality of the resources you find on the list.

Ask questions and share your experience at Sharing Solutions, a place to focus on solutions to problems or challenges (Topics are suggested by AutismConnects members).

Participate in Surveys.

Check out our Map/List of ASD Services and Members.

View and post upcoming ASD events to our Event Calendar.

Receive periodic email Updates.

Become a member today – it's free and simple. Just click on the link below to fill out a membership form. You can register as an Individual or as a Service Provider.

Help us to connect – Please forward this invitation to your friends, family members and colleagues.

For any technical difficulties with sign up, please contact techsupport@autismconnects.com. For poster distribution information, please contact nancy@autismsocietycanada.ca.