

Art Note Cards Order Form

Featuring popular art prints from a young artist with autism,
Grace Culliton

Grace was born in 1988, and was diagnosed with autism at the age of five. Grace demonstrated talent in art at an early age, and despite the significant challenges she faces as an individual affected by autism, has won awards and recognition for her work. Her art is characterized by strong use of colour, and a mature sense for spatial design, patterns, and textures.

Each 4" x 5½" card is printed on high quality card stock that is also suitable for framing
